In a very big green jungle there was a small pond. There were huge trees and tiny colorful flowers. It was a beautiful forest. There were many frogs and fish in that pond. There were two red fish in that pond. One was named Jetti and the other was named Maili. A green small frog also lived in the same pond. His name was Tim. One day in the evening three young boys came to the jungle. Their house was in the nearby village. They came near the pond to play. They saw the red fish and the frog and were surprised. One of the boys liked the red fish and took Jetti home. Tim and Maili cried waiting for Jetti to come back. One day they planned to go to the village and help Jetti come back home.
