KOLKATA: Two more arrests were made on Sunday in connection with the death of a Jadavpur University undergraduate student. The students were arrested for their alleged involvement in ragging an 18-year-old Swapnadeep Kundu who died after falling from the balcony of a hostel.

"One second-year student of Economics and another of Sociology were arrested on Sunday morning," reported PTI quoting senior officer of Kolkata Police.

The student of Economics is from Bankura district, while the other hails from Arambagh in Hooghly.

So far, three persons have so far been held in the case.

A former student of the varsity, who continued staying at the main hostel, was apprehended on Friday.

Swapnadip Kundu, a resident of Bagula in Nadia district, fell from the second-floor balcony of the main hostel building around 11.45pm on Wednesday and died while undergoing treatment at a hospital at 3.40 am on Thursday.

"The names of the two surfaced after night-long grilling of the arrested ex-student. Both are boarders of the same hostel and were there when the teenager allegedly fell from the second floor of the hostel building," said police.

Police said that they will question them to get names of those who are also somehow involved in the matter.

The two students will be produced before a court later in the day, he said.
