Vice-Chancellor (Preceptor): Speak the truth. Practise virtue. Let there be no neglect of your daily reading. Let there be no neglect of your duties and responsibilities. Let there be no neglect of truth. Let there be no neglect of virtue. Let there be no neglect of welfare. Let there be no neglect of prosperity. Let there be no neglect of learning and teaching.

The Recipients (Disciples): So shall it be. I shall act accordingly.

Vice-Chancellor (Preceptor): Whatever deeds are blameless are to be practised, not others. Whatever good practices there are among us are to be adopted, not others. Whoever are great and wise should be honoured.

What is to be given is to be given with faith, should not be given without faith, should be given in plenty, should be given with modesty, should be given with sympathy.

The Recipients (Disciples): Yes, I shall act accordingly.

Vice-Chancellor (Preceptor): If there is in you any doubt regarding any deeds, any doubt regarding conduct, you should decide yourself and act accordingly, after you judge critically advice and counsel of those who are competent to judge, who are devoted to good deeds, who are not led by others, who are not harsh, who are lovers of truth. This is the instruction. You shall take all this as the guiding philosophy of your life.

The Recipients (Disciples): Indeed, I shall act accordingly.

Vice-Chancellor (Preceptor): Serve your Country and Nation with all your might irrespective of any region, religion, caste or community.
