TalkClubb is all set to host a transformative workshop titled 'Psychoanalytic Therapy: From Freud till Today' on Saturday, January 18, 2025. The event will take place at the KP Basu Memorial Hall, Jadavpur University Main Campus, from 10.30 AM to 5 PM.

This workshop promises a deep dive into the evolution of psychoanalytic therapy, starting with Freudian theories such as the unconscious mind, defense mechanisms, and transference, and progressing to their modern applications in therapy today. Designed for students, aspiring psychologists, mental health professionals, psychoanalysts, and educators, the session aims to enrich participants' understanding and practical skills in psychoanalytic techniques.

Attendees will explore how these timeless theories have adapted to address contemporary challenges, fostering emotional well-being, self-worth, and social adaptability. Beyond theoretical knowledge, the workshop offers a valuable opportunity for networking and collaboration, connecting like-minded professionals in a supportive environment.
